MAY Price Increase

Dear Valued Customer:

Lomanco will be implementing a price increase for orders placed on or after May 1, 2025, on all aluminum and steel products.

The increase will be 10% on aluminum products, 10% on the BRV/KV vent line, and 5% on steel products, excluding the UFT tile vent line. There will be no increase on any of our plastic products.

Your Lomanco Area Market Manager will be providing you with updated pricing for these products within the coming weeks. We will continue to provide any necessary support for your success and the mutual growth of our companies. With your help, we look forward to building an even stronger future.

Lomanco will continue to provide the market with the best products, service, salespeople, and communication in the industry.

We appreciate your support and thank you for your valued business.

Sincerely,
